In time. Kidney diseases may be prevented by purifying, renewing, and invigorating the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. When, through difficulty, the action of the kidneys is perverted, these organs rob the blood of its needed constituent, albumen, which is passed off in the urine, while more matter, which they should carry off from the blood, is allowed to remain. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the kidneys are restored to proper action, and Albuminuria, or is prevented. Ayer's Sarsaparilla also prevents inflammation of the kidneys, and other disorders of these organs. Mrs. Jas. W. Weld, Forest Hill st., Jamaica Plain, Mass., writes: "I have had a complication of diseases, but my greatest trouble has been with my kidneys. Four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla made me feel like a new person; as well and strong as ever." W. M. McDonald, 46 Sursumer st., Boston, Mass., had been troubled for years with Kidney Complaint. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, he not only

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household. Many a mother, startled in the night by the ominous sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasping for air. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Quincy, 150 West 128 st., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life." Mrs. Clara B. Landon, Guilford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and also the life of my little son. As he was troubled with Croup, I dare not be without this remedy in the house." Mrs. J. Gregg, Lowell, Mass., writes: "My children have repeatedly taken Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Croup, Asthma, and Whooping Cough. It gives immediate relief, followed by a cure." Mrs. Mary E. Evans, Scranton, Pa., writes: "I have two little boys, both of whom have been, from infancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About a month ago we began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like a charm. In a few minutes after the child takes it, he breathes easily and rests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing I have found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Wm. C. Reid, Freehold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's medicines have been blessings for many years. ## SAM SMALL IN CHICAGO.

THE WAGES OF SIN AND THE INEXORABLE FIAT OF GOD.

"I Like When I Shoot in a Hole to Hear the bullets drop, or rather, I suppose there is some theory, and the Game Would Not Hinder if It Was Not This." CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Since the coming of Sam Small to attendance at the noon meetings in Farwell Hall has steadily increased till now there is standing room only. Mr. Small preaches his exhortation by saying that encouragement should be felt at the signs of the times. It would be sad, indeed, if the moral sewers of Chicago were full and no answer responded to a call down the sewerage or account of the city's want of clean clothes. But an answer was heard.

"I like," said he, "when I shoot into a hole to hear something growl or howl. It shows that the bullets are doing some good, and I like to hear it. I don't want to hear it when it isn't there." He then read Titus 1, 16: "Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their vain mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God, but they deny him, being ungodly, disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate."

"They said they would remember that his instructions were given to us who was to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to tell him the characteristics of the people he would deal with in the Christian ministry. To pure all things were made to minister, purity. If people were righteous themselves they would be found seeking to bring other people to righteousness. It is not the pure state of Christ which they were proud to see was one day coming. St. Paul, in his preaching, will show that the human heart was left in the hands of the devil of the people. He had encountered it at times himself when he preached at Ephesus, and when he discussed the practical matter of how they had a particular effect, there arose a great uproar in Ephesus.

"When ministers provoked against gambling hell and the devilries and the lawlessness and the run-holes in this country, their men engaged in this business cried: 'Our country is in danger from the preaching of these men,' and they raised the cry of 'Patriotism!'

He used to have something of the man feeling himself, but he had something to do with his mind enlightened by righteousness, and he thanked God that the Puritans did not see him in this country. He went to Plymouth Rock and planted on this continent a race of free men. Their influence was the best influence that had ever been in this country. He closed a bitter denunciation of those who believe in the hole in the wall, the Grand Mogul of the world, the Eldorado men have the high and sound his heads to-day, and a sounding his own determination to continue calling men's consciences back from their love of the world and the devil to give to immortal blessedness in heaven.

At night at the Chicago Avenue church a short service of singing and prayer preceded the discourse, and to bring the subject home to the hearers, Mr. Small read a chapter of the Bible, and occasionally in speaking. He preached from the text: 'The wages of sin is death, the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord.'

The speaker said the word "wages," which has been used by the translators of the King James version, was hardly the correct interpretation of the Greek word. The true translation was "retribution," and he referred the members in support of the armistice to those days. He pictured slavery at St. Paul, and said that a man in the slavery was in a worse hole than a man in the hole. He said that the wages of sin is death, and that the wages of sin is death, and that the wages of sin is death.

"The sin of blasphemy is almost universal. You can hear it every corner and in many places of business. The newspapers are full of it, and the churches are full of it. Covetousness is another heinous sin. It leads often to the blackest crimes. Many of the great sinners of the world have gotten money but had about him. If those men had the word of God in their mind would they have engaged in that trade over the world, which has been the cause of so much trouble, brutal death?

"The young men of this country are prone to forget the fact that their father and mother. They often dishonor them by entering the course of sin. I thank God that I never dishonored my sainted mother or my father, by words of mouth, however, I did obey them in my acts. I never called my father the 'old governor,' nor my mother the 'old woman.' This sin leads to untold misery and shame. A once prominent official of our government had three sons who died of delirium tremens and a daughter in law. How did this sin of drunkenness lead to the death of a young man in the Daily News to-day of a clergyman from Oregonia, Wis., who was found last night in a drunken fit in New York and they called the police and named him. How many gamblers in this city die broke; how many sailors keepers drunkards! The wages of sin is death.

"What must man do to escape the snare? Every sin has it in the seed of death. The souls in the graveyard have engrossed on the faces of the dead in the world. If those that died of their sins were marked by a red flag the cemeteries would become a flaming field to the devils regions of hell. By the mercy of Christ salvation is possible. Turn to Him and you will be made good. I feel sure of my salvation. I am sure of it. I have put all my sins in Him, and I have put my faith in Him. I have put my trust in Him. If I want long life, I can be happy to the voice of old John, who says: 'I have put my faith in Him, and I have put my trust in Him, and I have put my hope in Him, and I have put my love in Him, and I have put my life in Him, and I have put my soul in Him, and I have put my body in Him, and I have put my mind in Him, and I have put my heart in Him, and I have put my will in Him, and I have put my In the Legislature the Senate has passed the Harris penitentiary bill providing for the payment of Warden South up to the time of his reinstatement and then fixes the appointment and removal of the Warden in the control of the Directors. Mr. Wall is in every way competent to fill the position, and while we have been taking no sides in the contest of this character, it gives us pleasure to bear testimony to the character and fitness of Mr. Wall, to fill that position, and one who would serve faithfully the people of this District—Ashland Independent.

Rowan County's Trouble.
Senator McKee, who commanded the militia so bravely during its perilous service in Rowan County, has his heart set on the passage of a resolution, which has already gone through the Senate, to investigate the dastardly outrages in that section, and put the blame upon those who deserve it. The resolution authorizes the committee to send for witnesses, and Senator McKee is confident that the cause of all the disturbance there can be easily located. County Attorney Z. F. Young is taking a great deal of interest in the matter, and has been industriously lobbying against it. A gentleman in position to know tells me that Young is one of the worst men in the State. He has used his official position to cloak his own rascality and to cover over the misdeeds of the cut-throat gang, but by their lawlessness in this one county, have made the entire State infamous. McKee's investigation would unearth a number of disreputable things that so far have only been hinted at—Frankfort Correspondent of the Louisville Post.

TWO WOMEN CLAIM A BABY

A CASE WHICH WILL REQUIRE A SOLOMON TO DECIDE.

Each of the Claimants Swearing that the Child is Hers and Their Testimony Supported by Numerous Witnesses—The Judge Admits His Inability to Decide.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 22.—Last July Mrs. Maria Bauer, who had just arrived from Germany, was abandoned in this city by her husband, who had just lost a child by death, put in an appearance and offered to adopt Mrs. Bauer's baby until the latter would be able to take care of it. An agreement was accordingly drawn up, the burden of which was that Mrs. Bauer was to retain possession of the child until the mother could support it.

Not long ago the Society of St. Vincent de Paul became acquainted with Mrs. Bauer's circumstances and removed her from the home. Acting on the advice of officers of the society the mother called on Mrs. Myers, who refused to surrender a child then in her possession and claiming by Mrs. Bauer, protesting that it was her own. Mrs. Bauer had a writ of habeas corpus issued and the case came up.

On behalf of Mrs. Bauer Mrs. Kennedy, matron at the house where the baby in question was the issue of Mrs. Bauer, and also recognized Mrs. Myers as the woman who had and claimed by her the child. She was corroborated by Superintendent W. C. McCarthy and three other attendants. The mother also identified the child as her own, and became almost frantic when it was removed from her arms, where it had been most properly placed for identification.

Mrs. Myers and her witnesses were equally positive. She swore that she had never been at the city farm and had never seen Mr. McCarthy, Mrs. Kennedy or the other witnesses for the plaintiff who claimed to recognize her as the woman who adopted her infant. This child, she said, was her own, born on November 15 last. Mr. Myers, a nurse, was produced to testify that she attended Mrs. Myers. The midwife was absolutely certain the child in court was the issue of Mrs. Myers. Mrs. Myers' husband, Henry, and two other persons identified the child as the Myers infant. One of the women said that Mrs. Myers had been making baby clothes for two months prior to the birth of the baby. Mrs. Myers gave her testimony in a loud, positive voice, and at its close informed the court that she would hang in the middle of the court house before she would part with her infant.

There is no record at the office of the board of health of the Myers infant, or about November 15, while the arrival of the Bauer infant is properly recorded in the archives of the poor farm. Judge White was about to give the matter up when counsel for plaintiff said that he would press the matter no further for the present and, by agreement with the other side, would move for a discharge of the writ. This was done and the two women left the court room. Mrs. Myers radiant with happiness, holding the baby in her arms, and her husband almost broken-hearted. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will make a further effort to establish the identity of Mrs. Bauer's baby, and will also pay her expenses back to Germany.

AN Old Man Murders His Wife and Then Suicide.

BANDON, Mo., Feb. 22.—News has reached here of a shocking tragedy in Arostook county. About 7 o'clock in the morning she returned home with her two grandsons. The boys were out of the house cutting wood when suddenly Mrs. Martin rushed out screaming, closely followed by the old man with an ax.

She was overtaken fifty feet from the door and the man struck her a blow on the head with the weapon, killing her instantly. The boys ran for aid, while Martin dragged the body of his murdered wife to the house, left it on the floor, then went up stairs and shot himself through the head.

Four Men Perish by Capsizing a Skiff in the Susquehanna.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 22.—Five men, who had been on night turn at the Pennsylvania steel works at Steelton, just below this city, started to cross the Susquehanna river in a small row boat to their homes just opposite from the works. The fifth occupant, Frank Mathias, son of Charles Mathias, who was drowned, held on to the bottom of the boat and floated down the rapid stream about two miles, when he was rescued by witnesses of the sad accident.

There were no marks of violence on the bodies. They are thought to be brothers.

SIGNAL SERVICE REPORT:

"Fair weather, slowly rising temperature."
HAZEN.

The Greenup Circuit Court convenes to-day.

CEREALINE, best health food.—Cal-houn's.

As a "joke foundry," the Opera House Programme is a miserable failure.

The citizens of Paris are protesting against abolishing the State Geological Survey.

Mr. S. E. MARTIN of Germantown has a box, with but two legs, that weighs 200 pounds.

At Nicholasville, John W. Poor has been convicted and fined for "using explosives to catch fish."

The merchants are informed that the Opera House Programme is a "joke foundry" and not an advertising medium.

The Baptist Church was crowded last night, and some sat away who could not get seats. Chairs will be provided hereafter so that all may be seated.

Dr. POW of the Millersburg college preached at the M. E. Church, South, yesterday. His sermon in the morning was a very strong plea for more earnest work on the part of church members.

It is rumored to-day that Captain M. C. Hutchins has come to the relief of our neighbor, the Republican, and that the enterprise will be "resuscitated" and run hereafter under his management.

The disfiguring eruptions on the face, the sunken eye, the pallid complexion, indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expel the lurking foe to health by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

TONGALINE has given me exceedingly good satisfaction in an inveterate case of rheumatism and neuralgia which had defied everything else; symptoms have all disappeared.—C. L. Elmther, M. D., Iowa City, Iowa.

A WINCHESTER (O.) correspondent of Enquirer says: "Sharp & Co., of Winchester, have been awarded the contract to build the bridges and trestles on the Columbus & Mayville Road between Sardinia and Ripley."

RICHARD SMITH, an employee of the Mayville Furniture Factory, met with a very painful accident recently. While engaged about one of the rip-saws, he had the misfortune to lose the three first fingers of his left hand.

As an article for the toilet, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and preserves it from scurf and dandruff, cures itching and humors, restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, and promotes its growth.

Rev. P. B. GARNER baptized ten persons yesterday afternoon in the baptistry of the Christian Church. There are a number of others who have recently been received for baptism, and almost every Sunday some are added to the church.

Dr. GARNER HUNTER, who will assist Rev. Russell Cecil in a revival meeting at the Central Presbyterian Church beginning this evening, is a native of this city. He is a nephew of Charles Herbat, another old Mayvillian, whose present home is at Macon, Ga.

We are glad to learn that the committee engaged in securing the right of way along the line of the Mayville and Big Sandy Road are meeting with good success, and flatter themselves that little difficulty will attend their efforts in that behalf.—Ashland Express.

JAMES A. E. COOPER returned Monday night from Rowan County. He reports everything quiet there, and thinks peace has been permanently restored. He deserved credit for the able manner in which he conducted affairs there.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

The Lexington Transcript says: "J. D. Kehoe, Judge G. S. Wall, and Judge S. S. Savage are candidates in the Mayville District. Judge Kehoe says he is a sure winner; Dexter Kehoe says he will get there and Judge Wall says he will be elected. With three good men in Congress the district will be alive and well represented."

The entertainment given at the opera house Saturday night by the Madame Fry Concert Company of Boston attracted a large and appreciative audience. The concert was a rare treat to our lovers of music. The audience was very generous in its applause, and most every selection was encored. The company is all that the press has claimed for it, and the entertainment here was a decided success in every sense of the word.

CRUEL AND INHUMAN.

An Alleged Case of Brutal Treatment at Minerva.

The citizens of the ordinarily quiet little village of Minerva, in the western part of our county, have been terribly worked up for the past few days over an alleged case of cruel and inhuman treatment committed upon a young and defenseless child now living at that place. The victim of this alleged inhuman treatment is Thomas Gray, a bright little boy between nine and ten years of age. The fact that the child received this alleged mistreatment from parties who probably have no legal right at all to the custody, control, or correction of same, only served to make the good people of Minerva more incensed over the affair. The particulars as given below were furnished the BULLETIN by Messrs. Tom, McLaughlin and James Rynyon, who were here last Saturday afternoon to consult with County Attorney John L. Whitaker about beginning proceedings to investigate the charges, and the accused, if guilty. Nearly a year ago the boy, Thomas Gray, who had been an inmate of the County Infirmary for some time, was by an order of the County Court, bound out to Mr. O. N. Weaver, of Minerva, one of the Justices of this county. Mr. Weaver entered into the usual bond to properly treat the child—feed, clothe and educate it. In the course of time, the citizens of Minerva noticed that the boy was making his home at Chas. Biggers' instead of Mr. Weaver's, but they paid no particular attention to this, as they thought the custody of the child had been transferred by the court. Biggers is a son-in-law of Weaver's, and as Mr. McLaughlin says has always been considered a "clever, kind-hearted fellow." Investigation, however, shows that he had no right at law to the custody of the boy. For several weeks some of their neighbors have been talking about the manner in which Biggers and his wife were treating the child. According to Messrs. Rynyon and McLaughlin, reports of the brutal beatings the little fellow received were frequent. Matters ran on in this way until last Thursday evening. At a late hour that evening, a neighbor whose premises are separated from Biggers' by a narrow alley, heard some one scolding the child for not being more prompt in attending to some work about the house, and a few seconds afterwards, the scolding was followed by an unmerciful whipping. The next morning John Grigson, another neighbor, ran across the unfortunate child crouched down in some fold-out on Biggers' premises. The little fellow was but poorly clad, and with chattering teeth begged Mr. Grigson not to tell where he was, as he said "Mrs. Biggers had threatened to skin him alive when he went back to the house." Mr. Grigson left, but determined that something should be done for the child. During the snow storm that prevailed that afternoon, some of the neighbors, Messrs. Grigson and Robert Wilson, being among the number, went to look for the boy, but after searching the premises carefully could find no trace of him. Not satisfied, they went back later in the evening, and at last, discovered him under the stable floor. They tore up some of the flooring and took the little fellow out. The child was insensible and was taken at once to Mr. Grigson's home. The news spread over the place, and nearly all the citizens of the town gathered in and around Mr. Grigson's place in a short time. They expressed their feelings over the affair in very forcible language. Biggers himself went at once to Dover for Dr. Smith, and at 1 o'clock Saturday had failed to return. He probably thought it was best to make himself scarce in and about Minerva until the excitement had abated. Restoratives were applied, and after working about three hours the child was finally resuscitated, was getting along very well Saturday and will recover. At first it was thought the child would die from exposure, and it is hard to tell what might have occurred in the excitement that prevailed if such a thing had happened. Mr. McLaughlin says the boy's body shows marks of bruises and bad treatment, and that according to the boy's own statements, he went without any food from Thursday noon. The following letter explains itself. It was brought here Saturday by the gentlemen named above:

Hon. W. P. COOPER, P. J. M. C.—Dear Sir: I have at my home subject to your orders Thomas Gray, the child who was bound to whom I found at the stable of Charles Biggers nearly dead from exposure and inhuman treatment, having been turned from comfortable quarters into the cold. Said boy was bound to O. N. Weaver by the County Court, and came from the poor house. I can establish by legal and honest witnesses that said boy was transferred from Weaver to me, and that I have been treating him as a human being.

After consulting with County Attorney Whitaker a warrant was sworn out before Magistrate M. F. Marsh for Biggers charging him with cruel and inhuman treatment; and the matter will be investigated probably to-day before a jury at that place. The particulars as given above were furnished by Messrs. McLaughlin and James Rynyon, who were here last Saturday afternoon to consult with County Attorney John L. Whitaker about beginning proceedings to investigate the charges, and the accused, if guilty.

hoped that the matter may not turn out to be as bad as charged. Conclusions should not be formed until the other side has been heard. If the accused have anything to say the BULLETIN will gladly publish it. Let the investigation be thorough one, and if the accused are proven guilty, the extreme limit of the law will not be too severe a punishment for such an offense.

MORE VICTIMS.

Two West Virginian Farmers Taken in by Slick Grist-Mill Swindlers.

A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Point Pleasant, W. Va., says: "Lindsay Smith and Wiley Hatten are two of the wealthiest farmers in Wayne County, and are considered shrewd business men, but they have recently bought some expensive machinery from two men. Some months ago parties from Cleveland visited that county selling grist-mills, particularly adapted to large farms, for the convenience of the owners and their tenants. With the profuse illustrations and slick talk which the agents used they were successful in making a very favorable impression upon Mr. Smith and Mr. Hatten, and effected a sale to each of them before leaving, taking their notes for $500 each. After making these sales the agents disappeared from the county and Messrs. Smith and Hatten waited with no little degree of anxiety for the mills. In due time they came on, but instead of being as represented, they were found to be complete humbugs, and hardly worth the freight charges. They refused to receive them or have anything to do with them, and set about to have their notes cancelled. Upon investigation they found that the notes had been discounted at the nearest bank and that the mills had shipped out. It is understood that no such firm as they represented is doing business in Cleveland, and the mills shipped them are cheap concerns, and can be bought anywhere for $25. They are designed to be run by horse-power, but are scarcely successful for grinding than a large roller-mill. These rascals will, no doubt, attempt to play their trick vocation in other parts of the State, and farmers are warned to be on the lookout for them."

RIVER NEWS.

Falling fast at Pittsburg and intermediate points.

The City of Vevay has been chartered to take the place of St. Lawrence.

The Pittsburg coal pit is having passing for several days.

Boats down: Bottoms Pomeroy 1 a. m.; Soda River 1 a. m.; Due down Bonanza 3 p. m.; Bow 5 p. m.; Shirley 2 p. m.; Big Sandy 1 a. m. all for Cincinnati.

The latest news from St. Lawrence is that all the efforts made by her owners to relieve her from her dangerous position were unsuccessful, and the failing river has left her high and dry on the Kentucky shore about a mile or so above Augusta. Her owners have succeeded in "shoring" her up and she is now in a much better position. With her heavy machinery on board, it will be next to impossible to launch her and she will have to remain where she is until relieved by another rise in the river.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Republican, failed to make its appearance Saturday. We have been informed that it's not a simple case of "suspended animation" this time, but a real death. Our brethren have our sympathy in their hour of affliction. In this connection, however, we desire to inform the public that the DAILY and WEEKLY BULLETIN has proved itself by a straightforward course of about twenty-five years, one of the surest, safest and most reliable newspapers and advertising mediums in northeastern Kentucky. We also take a pardonable pride in informing the merchants of Mayville that the BULLETIN is the most valuable medium through which to present their advertisements to the public. We never "scale" our postages. Our already large subscription list is growing every day. Others may "suspend" or "throw up the sponge" for good, but the BULLETIN has every reasonable prospect of living a long and prosperous life, and doing much good for its friends. A word to the wise is sufficient."

"Rats."

A man near Princeton imagined himself a horse, harnessed up and began to haul wood. On going down a hill he found that the sled came too fast after him. At this he began to kick, upset the sled, broke and ran away, kicking, mortally wounding a dog named "Rat." At last his wife succeeded in capturing him. He showed signs of fright and temporary loss of mind.—Exchange.

Certainly a Valuable Remedy.

The Boonboro (Md.) Times says: "Dr. Luc's Swiss Balm" is an excellent cough remedy, and is being used by some of our town who have used it. Wm. H. Garrison (Sirocco, Ky.) writes: "Swiss Balm" is an excellent remedy for croup, whooping cough, colds, croup, and all other ailments of the throat. I have used it many times, and it is an unequalled remedy for coughs, colds and hoarseness. Price 25 and 75 cents. Sold by J. C. Peacor & Co.

PERSONAL.

Judge Cole passed through here Saturday night on his way to Greenup County.

Mr. J. Ludwell Browning and bride nee Miss Sallie Wilson have returned from their trip East.

Mr. W. S. Senter and sister, of Ripley, are visiting their brother, Thomas Senter, of the East End.

Hon. Emory Whitaker is attending the Greenup Circuit Court and talking railroad to the people of that county this week.

Three white evangelists from Ohio, are holding a meeting at the Colored Methodist Church here, and are guests of the colored paragon.—Barbours News.
